A Card from Senator Weil.

Mr. B. S. WEIL, ex-Senator from Washington County in this State, and a resident of Wisconsin for these 13 years past, makes answer this morning, to certain accusations against him, which were published in the National Police Gazette, New York, and which were noticed in our own and other Wisconsin papers. Assuming the facts to be as Mr. WEIL states them—and we know of no good reason to distrust that statement his reply to the charges of the Police Gazette must be set down as satisfactory and conclusive.

THE MILWAUKEE AND SUPERIOR R. R.—We invite attention to the communication, published in this morning's paper, from Mr. HAZELTEL, one of the officers and Directors of the Milwaukee and Superior R. R. Co., in reply to the charges contained in the Report of the Investigating Committee of the late Legislature. Mr. HAZELTEL tells a very straight forward story, and his statement, unless it can be effectually impeached, must go for to relieve the Company from the censures which have been so freely and indiscriminately showered upon them.

BURNING OF THE COURT HOUSE AT BLACK RIVER FALLS.—By an extra of the Jackson Co. Banner we learn that the new Court House, in the village of Black River Falls, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 1st inst. The burning was the work of incendiaries, and the loss about $4,500.

The Banner says:

"The location of the Court House in this part of the town has all along been a cause of local quarrel, and threats of burning have been thrown out freely within a few weeks. Also the building of a jail was not to the taste of some in town, whose prospect for a residence in it were exceedingly good. We think the jail was the cause of the burning of the building."

Miraculous Preservation.

Well Caved in—Two Men Buried Alive—Resurrection after being Entombed 25 and 30 Hours—One Uninjured, the other Recovering.

At 2 o'clock, P. M., on Friday last, our quiet citizens were startled by the announcement that the well on the premises of L. C. Risdon and W. S. Saunders—now owned by L. W. Wallace—had caved in, burying two men under its mass of curbing and gravel. With hundreds of others we hastened to the spot and found the announcement too true.

James Bush and Horace Richmond had been engaged in taking up the stone for the purpose of cleaning out and sinking the well, and stoning anew. They had reached the depth of thirty-five feet when the curbing gave way, and they were buried beneath seventeen feet of earth and rubbish. Forces were rallied and the work of exhuming commenced. Though no one had any hopes of rescuing the men alive—the supposition being general that they had been crushed or in the event of escaping instant death had soon been suffocated—all hands worked with a will. All the afternoon and through the silent hours of the night was heard the sound of the shovel, and the cry of "heave ho!" to the men who manned the ropes. But little progress was made during the night, the gravel running in from the loose and treacherous banks nearly as fast as it was thrown out

But with the morning's break the workmen were relieved and the "labor of love" went on. To prevent further accident it was necessary to curb strongly, which made the progress slow.—At 11 A. M., one of the workmen in the well sounded the "depths below" with a crow-bar, and sent up word that there was air, which raised the hopes of a few of the most sanguine. At about a quarter to twelve, a voice came up from the depths. It uttered: "WE ARE BOTH ALIVE. FOR GOD'S SAKE TAKE OFF THE DIRT AND GIVE US SOME WATER." Then went up a shout from the congregated hundreds that made the welkin ring. Among those anxious and relieved spectators was the young—not fourteen years old and but a few weeks married—wife of one sufferer, the mother of the other, and other relatives, and what a burden fell from their hearts.

Now, went on the work with renewed zeal, live men were to be saved, and not dead men disentombed. Several feet of earth yet covered the sufferers, but a hole was bored through and a bottle of water "telegraphed" to them. Richmond reported himself in a very comfortable position, with room to stand or sit; Bush was reported in close confinement, his legs imbedded in gravel, and his body in a stooping posture. The work progressed slowly, the utmost care being necessary to prevent further caving. The sufferers were enabled to converse and give directions as to the removing of the curbing which arched over them and supported the gravel, and the sudden giving way of which might yet fatally terminate the tragedy.

At 4 o'clock P. M., after an entombment of 26 hours, Richmond was relieved, and was drawn up from his gloomy prison depts, amid the clapping of hands. He was uninjured in limb, and though somewhat exhausted, walked readily.—In a hollow or two he was recovered, and was on the spot to await the relieving of his partner.

Bush was not taken out of his prison until 8 o'clock, having been confined 30 hours. He was somewhat bruised, and his lower limbs perfectly paralyzed, the pressure of gravel having stopped the circulation. So intense was the excitement in our community that we presume his arrival above ground was welcomed by over a thousand people. He was taken to the residence of T. F. Hill, where for several days he lay in a critical condition. The circulation is now entirely restored and his recovery is confidently expected. Mr. Hill is entitled to much credit for throwing open his doors and for the untiring care which he has bestowed upon the sufferer.

The preservation of these men is indeed a miracle. We have before heard of such things, but they were always at a distance, and shrouded in doubt. This we saw with our own eyes, know it to be true, and yet it is a mystery. But we will not speculate upon it.

OUR COMMERCIAL POSITION.—The letting of the contract for building the Root River Railroad to Mr. S. Chamberlain, secures the great turning arm in the commercial destiny of La Crosse. This line, in connection with the Transit road, which is already under contract, extends due west, by way of Mankato, some three hundred miles to the Big Sioux. This line, eventually, must extend farther west some hundred miles, where it strikes the Missouri river.

This then is the great base line on the West. On the East, by the first of October next, the great chain of railroads will be complete from Detroit to Grand Haven, and from Milwaukee to La Crosse. These two roads, in connection with the Grand Trunk railway in Canada, and the New York Central, form the base of the most direct and important railroad thoroughfare between the Eastern and North Western States.

La Crosse, by its position on the Mississippi, occupies, in our humble opinion, the most commanding point on the line; and those who come after us, twenty years from now, will behold La Crosse grown to twice the magnitude and importance of Milwaukee to-day!—La Crosse Dem.

From the London Morning Star.

A most painful scene, occurred at Hertford on Tuesday, the 18th. Toward the close of the proceedings of the Hertfordshire election; just after Sir Edward had concluded his address with a fervent tribute of admiration to the womanly beauty exhibited in the long line of open carriages, chaises and vans drawn up in front of the hustings, there was an unwonted stir in the crowd, which parted to admit of the passage of a hired brougham from one of the town inns.—The carriage having stopped, two ladies alighted, one of them an extremely handsome woman of about forty-five years of age, with fresh complexion, and with eyes of dazzling beauty. The lady, who was evidently laboring under excitement which exercised all her powers to control, advanced as nearly as she could through the crowd toward the hustings, and announced herself as the wife of the Right Hon. Sir E. B. Lytton, stating that she had come according to a promise made by her to confront her husband, and to expose the wrongs which she said he had inflicted upon her, and which she had described in her works and in a pamphlet published by her.

The appearance of the lady was not unexpected, as her coming had been announced in bills and placards; but owing to the deception which had been practised upon her by some persons in the town, who had introduced themselves to her, she was deceived in the town while the election was proceeding in the vicinity. Those in the secret anticipated that she would not discover the mistake until the proceedings were over, and that her design would be thus frustrated. It was nearly so. Recognized as soon as observed, her voice was nearly drowned by the shouts of Sir Edward's supporters, but Sir Edward's eye caught hers, and his face paled. He looked like a man suddenly attacked by paralysis. Those near him say he trembled exceedingly. For a few moments he retained his position in front of the hustings but turned his back on the unwelcome visitor. Then he suddenly disappeared below the hustings platform, while his wife cried "Coward," and he having hastily signed the usual declaration, escaped into the residence of the gentleman on whose grounds the election took place. Lady Lytton continued to address the audience assembled for more than a quarter of an hour, repeating her statements in her pamphlet, and asserting her intention to confront her husband on every possible occasion until she compelled him to redress her wrongs. Her ladyship subsequently made an application to the Mayor for the use of the Town Hall, for the purpose of making a public statement; but this being refused her, she left town early in the afternoon. Lady Lytton arrived at Hertford at 3 o'clock on the morning of the election, having posted from Taunton, where she resides. It is needless to say that the event described has caused the greatest possible excitement in Hertfordshire.

Seaman and Wing's Cabinet Manufactory.

Not long since, we gave a description of Messrs. SEAMAN & WING'S mammoth furniture warerooms, on Huron street, which it will be remembered we alluded to as being the largest establishment of the kind in the State. We have, since that time, had the pleasure of taking a look at their manufactory on Main street, which is conducted on a scale to correspond with the demands of their business. A walk through the various departments of their manufactory will fully repay one for the trouble. It consists of three buildings, three stories in height, which extend from Main to Milwaukee street, or about 250 feet in length, and are proportionably wide. In this establishment, every variety of furniture, from the common articles for kitchen or household use, up to the most elegant and expensive drawing-room outfits, are manufactured, equal too, in workmanship and style to those made in any other part of our old or new world. This, indeed, is one of the many home manufactories which every citizen of Milwaukee is reasonably proud of.

The principal entrance to this department of Messrs. SEAMAN & WING'S establishment, is on Main street, and in entering in the first place, we find ourselves in a large and commodious room devoted to the manufacture of chairs. Passing up stairs, we next find ourself in their extensive finishing rooms, where the furniture is polished, and receives the final touch before it is taken to the sale rooms in the other building. From this we go up into the 3d story. This is divided into two compartments, in one of which is carried on the painting and finishing of chairs, and the other is used exclusively for the manufacture of gilt mouldings, which in itself is quite an important branch of the business.

We next pass into the centre building, a brick structure, the first story of which is occupied by a handsome twenty five horse power engine which drives the machinery of the whole building. Here there is also a kiln for drying lumber. In the upper part of this building are the draughting and pattern rooms, &c. The next and last building, fronts on Milwaukee street, and is the principal and most important one. In the first story of this, turned work and other incomplete materials are stored before going into the hands of the finishers.

There is also in this story a large circular saw for sawing their heaviest work. The second story contains the machinery, which, for variety and adaptation to the business, cannot well be excelled. Here are planing, moulding, and mortising machines, turning lathes, and saws of every description, all moving with lightning velocity, and performing the labor of hundreds of men. In the story above this a large number of men are employed putting together the work as it comes from the machinery in the lower departments. Among other things in this department, we noticed a lot of nicely finished school furniture, destined for schools in one of our interior towns. Across Milwaukee street is a yard in which large quantities of lumber are stacked up to dry. In addition to this manufactory Messrs. S. & W. have a marble shop connected with their store on Huron street, in which are prepared marble tops for tables, wash stands, &c., thus making the establishment complete in every way, with facilities, as we have before said, of manufacturing every variety and style of furniture in use. We very heartily wish the owners all the success their enterprise deserves.

A NEW PARTNERSHIP.—The Waukesha Democrat, noticing the recent withdrawal of Col. EASTMAN from the News, intimates that this paper will hereafter be conducted by Mr. SHARPSTEIN and Mr. BYRON KILBOURN, and adds that Mr. K. is "half owner in this concern," and will henceforth control its columns.

ENLARGEMENT OF THE GAS WORKS.—In passing that way yesterday, we noticed that extensive improvements were going on upon the Gas Works in the Third Ward. The Company are now making additions to their works, Mr. HAYDEN, the Superintendent, informs us, which will double their facilities for manufacturing gas. A large tank for holding gas, is now being built adjoining the old works, which will be much larger than the one now in use, and will be used in connection with it. The foundation work of this is now nearly complete. It is built of brick, in the shape of a circle, is twenty feet deep, ninety-one feet in diameter and about 324 feet in circumference, and will be capable of containing upwards of 150,000 feet of gas. The elevator for this is a stupendous iron work, manufactured and put up by a Philadelphia firm. It is what is called a telescopic elevator, divided into two sections, which when elevated to their full extent by a heavy pressure of gas will be forty feet high.

The building of this tank will be completed in about a month. Laying the foundation some twenty ft below the surface, in the Third ward swamp, was a very difficult job, and one that required the greatest skill and perseverance. Two steam pumps were required to be kept at work all the time, to keep the water from flooding the builders, who had to work both night and day for some time. It was also necessary to drive several rows of piles around it to keep the earth from caving in. Messrs. HARRISON & CLARKE, were the contractors for the mason work, which is nearly complete, and is done in the most substantial manner. The Company, Mr. HAYDEN tells us, are expending on this improvement, some thirty-five thousand dollars. This will enable them, however, to supply the city with gas for years to come, however much the demand may be increased.

Company "B," M. L. G.

The best feature of the Celebration on the 5th, was considered by many to be the fine display made by Company "B," Capt. TOWNSEND, led by MERRILL'S Cornet Band. The Company, on a moment's notice, mustered 40 muskets strong, and marched through the principal streets in the afternoon, to the head of Division Street, on the Lake bluff, where they went through the various evolutions known in military tactics, to the delight of a large crowd of spectators, both gentlemen and ladies—several of our most prominent families appearing on the grounds in carriages.

After the exercises here were gone through with, they marched through the streets to the Newhall House, and drawing up in line on Main street, in front of this House, they were addressed by Judge HUBBELL, in a very appropriate and becoming manner, from the balcony. He referred in glowing language to the deeds of the brave in the American Revolution, and recounted the hardships and toils of the soldierly in those "days that tried men's souls." He spoke of the great sacrifice of time and money that it required at the present time to maintain a well-organized military corps—spoke against standing armies in time of peace, and congratulated the country, and our citizens in particular, in having so well drilled and gentlemanly citizen soldiers as those comprising this Company.

The whole affair passed off very agreeably to all who participated in this "after-piece" of the celebration of our National Holiday.

A LOOKER-ON.

MAN DROWNED.—A man, whose name could not be ascertained, was drowned in the Menomonee River, near the upper bridge, while bathing, yesterday morning. He was seen in the water washing himself, and after coming out he went in the second time and immediately disappeared. His body was afterwards found by Policeman JUER, and interred in the poor house burying ground, by order of Chancellor WALWORTH. A few miserable rags were found on the bank which he used for clothes, in a pocket of which was found a coarse comb, a skein of white thread, and a rusty old razor. He was apparantly about thirty-five or forty years of age, of dark complexion, and supposed to be an Irishman. Nobody seemed to recognize the body, and the probability is that he was some poor friendless, and homeless creature.

NEW SHIPPING AND COMMISSION HOUSE.—In our advertising columns will be found the card of Messrs. NEWHALL & CLARKE, who have recently entered into co-partnership as Storage, Shipping and Commission Merchants, and occupy the large brick Warehouse and Steam Elevator and Shipper on Walker's Point, adjoining the Engine House of No. 4. One of the partners, Mr. DANIEL NEWHALL, has been for many years in this business, though during the past year, or two, he has been otherwise engaged. The other, Mr. M. W. CLARKE, formerly Secretary of the Gas Company, has also had much experience as a Shipping and Commission Merchant. Both are well-known to our readers as energetic, enterprising, reliable and successful business men, and the best wishes of a host of friends attend them in their new venture.

MERRILL'S AMERICAN CORNET BAND.—Among the prominent features of the Procession on Monday, was MERRILL'S American Cornet Band, which turned out that day for the first time, in full uniform, at the head of the Infantry and Rifle Companies. The Band numbers twenty performers; were dressed in an exceedingly neat and becoming uniform of dark blue, trimmed with silver lace; had a decidedly military look; marched well, and played admirably. Professor MERRILL, their indefatigable and accomplished leader, has fully redeemed his promise to organize and equip an American Band in this city, second to none in the West. Their praise was on everybody's lips, Monday, and they were kept busy all day, parading with the Regiment in the morning, with Company "B," in the afternoon, and furnishing the music for the Light Guard Cadet's Ball, in the evening.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—An individual, calling himself John Bunker, was arrested for indecent exposure of his person, on East Water street, in the afternoon, and sentenced to three months imprisonment in the county jail, by Judge WALWORTH, in default of fine. Frank Smith, alias, disorderly, fined $1 and costs.—John Bremon, drunk, fined $1. Edward Fitzgerald was convicted of an assault and battery, and fined $10 and costs. James Grace and Frank Barow were found guilty of disorderly conduct and fined, the former $5 and the latter $3, and costs. Andrew Brown, charged with being disorderly, was discharged.

PROMPT.—Yesterday morning, Col. Hendricks, Agent of the Liverpool & London Fire Insurance Company, in which Messrs. Bullock & Many had an insurance of $2,000 on their lumber destroyed at the Orange street fire, paid that amount to them, the firm not losing the interest that is generally withheld in cases of immediate payment.—Albany Atlas and Argus.

The same Company with equal promptitude and fairness, paid some $40,000 in Chicago last fall and winter, the result of losses by the two great fires which occurred in that city. Mr. ROBERT ELIOT, of the well known produce firm of ELIOT & HOLMES, is Agent for this Company for the State of Wisconsin.

SATTERLEE & BELL'S CIRCUS.—We are requested to state that tickets to the above circus can be obtained at the Light Guard Saloon, Huron Street,—HARRY BINGHAM having been appointed agent. This will be a convenience to those who may wish to avoid the rush that always takes place at the ticket wagon on such occasions.

CIRCUIT COURT—JUDGE MCARTHUR PRESIDING.—The Grand Jury presented some additional indictments and were discharged for the term.

The case of the State Bank vs. Henry Montgomery, is still before the Court, and occupied the whole day yesterday.

THE LAST CHANCE.—C. SALOMON & Co., opticians, have concluded to stay in this city until the 16th of this month only, and this is positively the last chance offered to those ladies and gentlemen who wish to purchase a pair of their celebrated spectacles. Their office is at 210 E Water street, Juneau Block, up stairs.

☞ TO DRUGGISTS AND THE PEOPLE.—You are hereby cautioned against spurious imitations of Dr. De Grath's "Electric Oil," as we shall prosecute any party who uses our copy righted bills. This (genuine) "Electric Oil" has cured the Mayor of Camden, of Piles and Rheumatism; also, Hon. John Williamson, of Huntington, Hon. E. Kilmpatrik, (whom it took off his crutches in one day) and more than 100 others in Philadelphia, whose names have been published in the Philadelphia Ledger.

The wholesale dealers in Philadelphia would not countenance any scamp guilty of the rascality of counterfeiting. In Harrisburg, John Wyeths, Esq., a well-known Druggist there, caused the arrest and imprisonment of one Valentine, who attempted an imitation of this valuable remedy. A gentleman will soon be in Pittsburg, and will be able to show the people what power this Oil has over disease and pain.

Principal office 29 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. No (genuine) Oil without the name Dr. De Grath's Electric Oil blown in the bottle, and the written signatures of Dr. De Grath & Co., and E. A. Smith, to imitate which is felony!

☞ PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In our advertising columns is to be found an advertisement of this popular restorative. We know nothing of its merits save what we read, but this is sufficient, particularly when we see such testimony of its efficacy as the following, which we clip from the Ottawa Free Trader:

"Having tried successively sundry highly recommended hair cozies, on our own half denuded crown, we about lost all confidence in nostrums of that sort, until a week ago we met a distinguished politician of this State, whom we had seen three years ago with thin hair, and as 'gray as a rat,' but now boasting of quite a head of hair as one could wish. We demanded the secret of his improved appearance, when he readily accounted for it by ascribing it to the virtues of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. We will try that next.—Rock River Democrat.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 8.

Milwaukee and Superior Railroad.

Ever since the publication of the Report of a committee of investigation of the Assembly, relative to the affairs of the Milwaukee & Superior Railroad Company, the management of that Company has been singled out in public and private circles, as an extreme case of fraud, recklessness and corruption.

The very few who have read the testimony presented to the committee, and on which their report claims to be founded, do not need to be informed how base and malignant the assertions contained in that document are. This Report proves again how worse than useless are investigations conducted with no higher object or aim than private gain, or the gratification of personal malice.

If all who read the report could also be furnished with the testimony above alluded to, I should be quite willing to leave the report with its gross perversions of fact, and its cowardly and sweeping attacks upon all concerned in the management of the company, to the discriminating judgment of the public.

But this is not possible, as the author of the report well understood, and justice to myself and others associated with me in the Company, requires that I should correct the false impressions that have been excited by its perusal, by a brief statement of facts.

The charter of the Company required that before its full organization, there should be subscriptions made to the Capital stock and five per cent thereon paid in, to the amount of $100,000. At the first meeting of the corporators, held in March, 1856, subscriptions were made to the amount of $120,000, and a check was given by each of the subscribers for five per cent of the amount of his subscription.

Whether this be strictly legal or not, it has been, as I am informed, the usual mode adopted in the first organization of nearly all classes of Corporations in this State. These checks were received by the Treasurer and entered upon the Company's books as cash. Several of them I know have since been paid, including my own.

Down to the month of August, 1857, when every Railroad enterprise in the country received a stunning blow, all the operations of all new Companies were completely paralyzed; the affairs of the Milwaukee & Superior Railroad Company were prosperous, and gave the strongest encouragement of the completion of its road to Cedarburg, 18 miles from this city, by the close of navigation.

The grading was nearly two-thirds completed. The most expensive part of the right of way was secured and paid for; the ties were nearly all delivered upon the line of the road; the iron was purchased and partially delivered; for the whole distance; two Locomotives were purchased, and one of them in use; the work of track laying was commenced and progressing with reasonable rapidity. The Company was in fair credit at home and abroad, and it is not unreasonable to suppose that if the crisis in monetary affairs had occurred a few months later, the hopes and expectations of the Company and its friends, would have been realized, and daily trains would now be running between Milwaukee and the thriving villages of Ozaukee County.

The total suspension of work was compelled about the last of October.

Up to the time of this suspension there had been sold and the proceeds thereof used by the Company, the following:

Milwaukee City Bonds,	100,000
Farm Mortgage Bonds, including $18,600 paid to the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R Co., for the contract hereinafter mentioned, for use of depot grounds and track,	$ 59,000
Paid cash stock issued absolutely including $35,000 paid to the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R Co., for the contract hereinafter mentioned.	20,000
The cash liabilities of the Company, including balance for right of way in Cedarburg, notes for iron, loco notives, &c., due, and to become due, probably did not exceed.	85,000
A portion of these liabilities were secured by pledge of farm mortgages to the amount of	5,700
And also in cash debt, by the pledge of first mortgage bonds to the amount of	42,000
The Company had in addition to these, farm mortgages to the amount of	26,600
Of which $50,000 were temporarily pledged to the City of Milwaukee and a large amount of first mortgage bonds of which the city held as collateral.	100,000

Had the condition of the money market continued without material change through the year 1857, the completion of the road to Mequon, early in October, would have enabled the Company to make sales of farm mortages at fair prices, to an amount sufficient to meet all accruing liabilities of the Company, and to keep the work of construction in active progress, while the advance of the track Northward, would have given such a value to the first mortgage bonds, as to ensure a ready sale at good prices. But the sudden and paralyzing money panic, destroyed at once the value of both classes of securities. They could not be sold after September at any price worth taking, and a suspension was compelled under circumstances the most disadvantageous. Since the suspension of work in October, no new liabilities have been incurred by the Company.

Efforts were made by the Company, to raise money to pay the interest on the city and farm mortgage bonds, due on the 1st day of January last, and Mr. Alton, then President, was entrusted with the remainder of the farm mortgages amounting to $45,600 for that express purpose.

The payment was not made, and Mr. Alton has failed and refused to render a satisfactory account of the mortgages.

The results accomplished by the Company, show how well-founded their expectations were. They have acquired a twenty years contract with the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. Company, for the use of depot grounds, passenger stations, and four miles of track next the depot of the latter Company in this city, so as to start their own trains direct from this city. This contract is well worth $50,000.

The Company has completed and nearly fenced the first 85 miles of its road, ready for the cars, worth at $18, 00 per mile	$120,000
It has very nearly finished the grade of five miles more, ready for the track	20,000
It has two first class locomotives, cost,	2,000
It has ten platform cars, cost,	5,000
It has expended in Engineering upon the entire line from Milwaukee to Green Bay about	10,000

It is worthy of remark that for the first ten miles, the right of way alone has cost the Company about $2,000 per mile.

Besides these substantial results of the company's operations, there have been considerable expenses incurred that are incidental to the commencement of all such enterprises, which have to be incurred at the outset, and never afterwards, and serve to swell the proportionate expenditures of the company in the first year or two of its existence:

We have this substantial property which to any Railroad Company is worth at least	$200,000
To this may be added for agencies, salaries, interest, rents, and other preliminary and incidental expenses, not embraced in the property above enumerated	25,000
	$225,000
For which the Company has used in stock, bonds and mortgages, at their par value	278,700

The Directors of this company are charged indiscriminately with swindling designs, and with having initiated and conducted the operations of this company for the purpose of cheating and fraud. How is this charge sustained?

With the exception of Mr. Alton, not one of them has made any profit out of it. For nearly two years of service as Vice President,—the President being away all the time, absent from the State—I have received less than $1,000, though I have advanced money from time to time, and the company has ever since its organization, been indebted to me in several hundred dollars, and at times in more than one thousand dollars, for such advances on which I have not claimed or required interest. The Attorney, Mr. Stark, for the same term of service, rendered exclusively to the company, has received but about $1,100 in all.

All the directors, with one exception, are bound to the city for her indemnity against loss by reason of the loan of $100,000 of her bonds, until 20 miles of the road shall be completed. Several of the directors have also become liable as endorsers of the notes of the company to the extent of many thousand dollars.

Could any better guarantee of good faith be furnished, than this, when men, who have long been residents of this city, incur obligations which must, without the best of fortune, involve them in ruin?

There is in the whole history of our company, but one incident, which furnishes the least excuse for an attack upon the motives and fidelity of the management, and that does so only in appearance.

I refer to the issue of $100,000 of full paid stock. This issue was ostensibly made as compensation to Mr. Alton, for procuring the transfer of the corporate franchises and rights of the Green Bay, Milwaukee & Chicago Rail Road Company, to the Milwaukee & Superior Rail Road Company. The real object of this issue was self protection, in view of the large pecuniary lisbilities incurred, for which the directors held no indemnity from the company. This stock was issued and distributed, and held as collateral security, and as indemnity, (slight indeed) for the liabilities above mentioned.

It is easy to find fault when an enterprise has failed, and there are never wanting some who are ready and eager to turn the mishaps of others to their own account. Such men suppose that their indignant censures and harsh accusations, however unmerited, will be taken by the heedless public, as evidence of public spirit, and an elevated virtue.

The affairs of the Mil. & Sup. R. R. Co, are open to any impartial investigation. The most ample opportunity was afforded to the committee of the Assembly, and subsequently to a committee of the Common Council of this city, to become fully acquainted with all the acts of the Company, and of its Directors in its management.

I admit that there may have been errors in the management.

The efforts of the Company were extended over too wide a field of operations at the commencement. This mistake was occasioned by the strong wish expressed by many citizens of the Northern Lake Shore Counties, that the route might be surveyed, and the work commenced as early a period as practicable, near Green Bay and Manitowoc. In fact, the county of Brown in the spring of 1857, voted to loan its credit to the Company to the amount of $300,000, and Manitowoc County would have done the same during the year, but for the financial crash which began in July. Had the times continued favorable, the expense incurred in those remote Counties, would have, no doubt, have proved wise.

It must be admitted also, that too much confidence was placed by the Board of Directors in the President, Mr. Alton.

This confidence was, however, warranted by the fact that until after the crisis was upon us, the financial operations of Mr. Alton, for the Company, had not been such as to excite distrust of his integrity.

His waste and misapplication of the Company's property, have been developed only within a few months past, and since his August report to the Board of Directors.

The Legislative committee mention the acts of the Directors of the Milwaukee and Superior Railroad Company, in obtaining control of the Charter of the Air Line Railroad Company to Fond du Lac, as a most iniquidous fraud. Yet it cannot fail to strike every sensible man as a measure of the soundest policy. The Air Line Road is located from Milwaukee to Fond du Lac, by way of West Bend.

To the Milwaukee and Superior Railroad Company, it was a question of great moment whether the large business which the Air Line Road must receive from the North and from the towns along its route, should be diverted, or should be made to swell the receipts of the first eighteen miles of the Superior Road.

By securing the control of the Air Line Company, the Directors intended to make that Road a tributary of all its business to the Superior Road at Cedarburg, an object of ten fold the value of the compensation paid to N. P. Tallmadge, to effect the change of direction.

I do not propose to extend this statement by enumerating the advantages of the route of the Milwaukee and Superior Railroad. Very few can now be found who doubt that a road constructed on the line Northward, and a road from Cedarburg to Fond du Lac, must be channels of extensive business.

No one can question it for a moment who is at all familiar with the density of population, the advanced cultivation, the productiveness of the soil, the industry and thrift of the people, the rare facilities for manufacturing, the multitude of mills, the rich abundance of valuable timber and stone, and the other varied indications of increasing prosperity and wealth.

It is the misfortune of Milwaukee that some of her citizens, while never engaging in public enterprises themselves, employ their time assiduously in decrying the merits of all new projects, and in obstructing the efforts of those who engage in them. Such men have, at different times, been serious hindrances in the way of every Railroad Company in this city.

They denounce all railroad schemes as wild and visionary, and all who engage in them as swindlers and thieves.

The Milwaukee and Superior Railroad Company has had such a band of miscreants to contend with ever since its organization, and they are the same who now denounce the managers of the road. Their motive is the same; they have discovered nothing new, but denounce indiscriminately all who are connected with railroad enterprises, whether with or without cause, it is alike to them. No man is safe from the malignity of such men, and no community can prosper long where their clamor is heeded.

The facts I have stated show, and an examination of our affairs will convince any unprejudiced man that the present depressed condition of our company is due to the financial storm which swept the whole country in 1857. But we have not labored in vain; we have started an enterprise which others more fortunate than us will soon prosecute to completion, and thus add another to the banks that bind our fair city to the rich interior of our State.

H. HAERTEL.

Milwaukee, July 6th, 1858.

Carroll College, Waukesha, Wisconsin.

The annual commencement exercises in this institution, will take place this year on the 14th of July. The graduating class will consist of four young gentlemen, whose speeches will be delivered in the Presbyterian Church of Waukesha, on Wednesday, the 14th of July, commencing at 2 P. M., after the delivery of which the usual degree of A. B., will be conferred upon them, and the President's Baccalaureate is expected. On the evening of Wednesday, the 12th, Rev. Mr. Hickman, of Portage City, is expected to deliver the annual address, before the Missionary Society of Inquiry, and on Tuesday evening, the Rev. D. Plummer, of Allegheny City, is expected to address the Library Association of the College. The examination of the College classes will take place on Thursday and Friday of the preceding week. The Normal Department, under the charge of Mr. Andrew Watson, will be examined Wednesday and Tuesday, the 12th and 13th—the exercises to commence at 9 A. M. and 2 P. M. of each of the days named.

We are pleased to announce the successful issue of this young institution, from the embarrassment growing out of the recent crisis in monied matters, under which so many similar enterprises in our country have been compelled to suspend. We are assured by the President, who is also fiscal agent of the institution, that means are forthcoming to meet all its liabilities, and to enable it to enter upon a new collegiate year in September next, free from debt, without a shilling's incumbrance upon its property, and provisions made for the instruction on an economical scale. There will be a modification of the faculty the coming year. Professors Montieth and Bean have terminated their connection with the College, and Professor Evan goes to Europe, to spend a year in perfecting himself for the prosecution of the work of his department. Negotiations are in progress to fill the vacancies thus occasioned, with every prospect of success. Rev. Alexander B. Bullions, the son of Rev. Dr. Bullions, the well-known compiler of a series of original books in common use, will probably be identified with the College. The younger Mr. Bullions has recently returned from a tour in Europe, visiting, for his own improvement, the more celebrated institutions on the continent, and will bring with him an experience which cannot but be highly beneficial to Carroll College. The vacancies in the faculty will, in all probability, be ably filled, before the close of the ensuing vacation, and the institution will commence its new collegiate year on the 1st of September next, fully and ably manned, prepared to accomplish its legitimate work on a more enlarged and satisfactory basis than hitherto.

The Iowa Gold Stories a Humbug.—Mr. John Daily, of Osceola, Clark Co., Iowa writes to the Indianapolis Journal that the stories of large quantities of gold having been found in Iowa are all false. Mr. D. says he lives in the vicinity of Clark county mines.

For the Daily Sentinel.

A Letter from Senator Weil.

To the Editor of the National Police Gazette:—

You have given publication in your paper of 19th of June, to an article, apparently editorial, containing gross libels upon me, and charging me with various criminal acts. I have good reason to believe, that the article in question was furnished to you by a wicked and designing woman, from whom, on account of misconduct on her part, I have long since been lawfully divorced, but who still pursues me, with a malignity which neither lapse of years, nor change of country can mitigate. I am at a loss to account for the motive which could have induced you to publish such base calumnies concerning a person of whom you have no knowledge, unless it be that you have been deceived, or have been employed to do so, by the person to whom I allude.

Every charge, every accusation, every insinuation contained in that article, which is intended to refer to myself, or to my present wife, is wholly false, and without the least foundation in fact. And were it not that reput able journals in the State where I reside, have adverted to these accusations, and have given publicity among the respectable portion of the community, to a part of those charges, I should not deem it necessary to make any further denial or reply, but would resort at once, and without further explanation, to such remedy as the law affords me. But for the reason stated, it is proper that I should be more specific. First, then, as to what you term the "Baltimore Mysteries." I left France in the month of May, 1848, embarking from the city of Strasbourg, where I was born a poor boy, and where by my own unaided industry, energy and good conduct, I had become the principal in a large mercantile establishment, transacting a business amounting to several millions of francs annually. I did not "abscond," but left openly, hundreds of my acquaintances knowing of my intentions, and seeing the preparations which I was making for my departure.

And here I will state a fact, which will dispose of the charge that I was a "fugitive criminal," or a fugitive in any sense. When I left Strasburg, I bore with me a passport, made out in due form, and bearing the signatures of the proper municipal authorities, which passport is still in my possession, and can be produced, should occasion ever require. That passport, every one in the least familiar with the police regulations of foreign capitals, knows could not have been obtained by a person against whom any criminal charge whatever was pending.

I came to the city of New York, where I resided for several months. Domestic difficulties occasioned by the vindictive temper and vicious conduct of my wife, induced me to leave New York, and go to New Orleans, where I was the owner of a large interest in a wholesale business house. After spending some time in New Orleans, I left there for Wisconsin. My movements were all public; I sought to become acquainted with this country and its people, and while traveling and during my sojourn in different places, made many acquaintances.

On my way from New Orleans to Milwaukee, by the way of New York, where I had business to transact, I stopped at Baltimore, at the house of an old and esteemed friend, Mr. Pulvermacher, a well known citizen and wholesale merchant of that place. While at his residence, I accidentally noticed a paragraph in one of the city papers, which stated that a gentleman had been lately robbed on the train, and that a trunk bearing the name of Schlesinger, which had been left at the depot, had been seized by the police, and that it was supposed that that trunk belonged to the man who was suspected of having committed the theft, and who, it was stated, had got off the cars at Baltimore.

I immediately called the attention of Mr. Pulvermacher to the paragraph, and accompanied by that gentleman, at once went to the Police office, stated to the officers that my name was Schlesinger, that the trunk they had taken possession of was mine, that I had seen the article in the Gazette, and had come to the Police office for the purpose to meet any charge that might be brought against me. At the same time, I informed them of the name and place of residence of the friend with whom I was stopping, and that I should remain with him several days longer. I did remain for nearly a week, and during that time called upon the District Attorney of Baltimore, who, at my request, caused my trunk to be opened and its contents to be examined by the police. Nothing was found to justify or to excite suspicion, and my trunk was immediately surrendered to me. Believing that the whole story of the robbery was an invention of my wife, intended to injure and to annoy me, I then demanded to see the person alleged to have been robbed, but, as I had supposed, no such person was, or could be produced. The story was a pure fiction. The police were satisfied that the whole affair was a base conspiracy against me, by my wife and her agents, and that no robbery had been committed upon, or by any one, and in the opinion of the District Attorney fully concurred. I was charged with no crime, was not detained by the Police, was not even arrested by them: and I challenge an investigation of the records of the Courts of Maryland and of the Union, to show that I was ever charged with, or was ever arrested for crime.

In 1845 I arrived in Wisconsin, where I have ever since resided. My life and history, during that period, are well known to most of our citizens; and the only truth contained in your article is that "I have been a Member of the Wisconsin Legislature, a great Democrat, and the real owner of a large landed property." That statement is true. I am a Democrat, and I have enjoyed the confidence of my party, and of my fellow citizens, to that extent that I have been twice elected to represent the county in which I reside in our State Senate, and have been once returned to the Assembly. I have also, at different times, been chosen to fill various other responsible and honorable offices; and in 1856 I was honored with the nomination by the Democratic party as their Candidate for Presidential Elector. I can safely appeal to the citizens of Washington County and of the State of Wisconsin, to say whether I have ever done a dishonorable, or a disreputable act. Our partisan contests have always been severe, and often bitter, yet my worst political foes have never ventured to assail my private character, nor my social life.

The charge that the title to my real estate is in another name, is untrue, as is also the remark that "I can encounter any amount of indebtedness without any personal responsibility," and that "my French creditors cannot reach me."

I am, indeed, the owner of a large and valuable real estate, which was purchased in my own name, and the title still remains in me. It is true that my wife holds property in her own name, but she has it in her own right, derived from her parents. I am, to day, the owner in my own right of real estate, which is valued even in these hard times, at over one hundred thousand dollars. I have no desire to boast of my wealth, but what I have is openly and notoriously mine, has been honestly and honorably acquired, and has been at all times, and is now, subject to any lawful demand that can be exhibited against me from any source whatever. I owe no debts in Wisconsin, or elsewhere, which are not amply secured upon tangible and productive property; and I have no French creditors—their claims were long since paid.

When I left France, I fully believed, and had the best reasons for so believing, that I left ample means to pay all my debts. I had parted from my wife; we were separated by an act of the Court for her misconduct, and I had paid to her over 80,000 francs. I had thought that I had parted with her forever; that after having destroyed my domestic peace, broken up my business, deprived me of a considerable part of my property, and compelled me, by her wicked life, to become an Exile from my native country, that when I had gone, her malignity would have been satisfied. But she was still determined to pursue me, and through her wickedness and misrepresentations, some of those whose notes had been given to me, and which notes I had endorsed over to my creditors, were induced to deny their signatures—My creditors were not paid, the remaining property which I had left was sold at forced sales at a ruinous sacrifice, for a sum insufficient to discharge my debts, and I was declared a bankrupt. But when I was apprised of this fact, I at once informed my creditors that I would pay every sou I owed, and having been successful in some commercial speculations in N. Orleans, I was enabled to pay, and did pay, those claims when they were presented. These transactions occurred more than thirteen years ago, but I have still among my papers the evidence to prove what I assert. The following statement then given to me by an eminent lawyer in Wall St., N. Y., will corroborate the above.

"I, Francis Griffin, of the city of New York, Counsellor at Law, do hereby certify, that during the past year, I have been employed by the creditors of Barnch Schleisinger, late of France, to collect a large amount of claims and demands which they had against him; that in the latter part of June last, the said Barnch Schleisinger paid about one hundred and eighty thousand francs, on bills bearing his endorsement, which had been placed in my hands for collection; and in the present month of February, he has also paid the further sum of about three hundred and twenty thousand francs, on bills of a similar description.

Dated New York, February 26, 1846.

(Signed,) Francis Griffin."

Allusion is also made to my change of name, as if there were anything criminal or improper in that. I never assumed an alias, and never adopted a new name, until legally authorized to do so. I applied to the Legislature of Wisconsin for that purpose, and a public act was passed of which the whole world had notice, the same notice which they have of any legislative proceeding, authorizing the change. But I did not suppress my own name; I but added the name of my present wife to my own, a compliment often paid by Frenchmen to their wives, and which is sanctioned by the laws of the land.

By the laws of Wisconsin, and by the Jewish law, I have been divorced from my first wife. I am now, and have been for a long time, married to my second wife, a virtuous and amiable lady, who is respected and beloved by all who know her. My regard for her, as well as for my numerous family, forbids that I should make further reference to her in this communication.

To the preceded transcript or copy of a sentence, you have published, I need hardly allude. It appears to have been rendered in 1845, at which time I resided in this State, and was well known to many of its leading citizens. I left France in 1848, and in 1844 and 1845, annually paid to Mr. Griffin, in New York, the claims held against me in favor of my French creditors, so that my place of residence must at that time have been well known to them.

This disposes of the various charges and insinuations made against me in the article in question.

It is, perhaps, due to myself, as well as to those friends who may read this reply and who may have considered it unnecessary that I should make any statement in vindication of myself, against calumnies to foul to be believed by any who know me, that I should state, that I have done so simply for the purpose of placing my denial and reputation upon record for the benefit of those who may not know me personally, and who, having read or heard of the charges contained in the National Police Gazette, might construe my silence into an admission of the truth of those charges. It is easy for a bad and vindictive person to blacken with false accusations the character of the most innocent, and there are many who, from ignorance or from malice, will profess to believe every charge made, against a person which is not denied.

I repeat that every charge, every accusation every insinuation contained in that article is utterly false, and at the proper time I shall take the necessary steps to punish the real author of those libels.

A recent change of residence, and the confusion and derangement of my papers incident to such removal, as well as a pressure of unavoidable business engagements, have prevented me from preparing this statement at an earlier period. BARNCH SCHLEISINGER WEIL

Shocking Death by Lightning.

The house occupied by F. Gostrick, situate on the east side of the upper road leading from this village to Cucapside, just this side of J. Russell & Co.'s cutlery works, was struck by lightning during the shower of Friday last, and his daughter Augusta, aged 18 years, instantly killed. The lightning was probably attracted by a large white pine tree, which stood north of the house, and the branches of which partly overhung the roof of the house. The tree standing upon rocky soil, and being a bad conductor of electricity, the fluid passed down the chimney of the house, which rested on the ground, and was a better conductor. The girl who was killed was standing with a younger sister in the lower room of the house, beside the chimney, and took the whole force of the shock—the fluid passing from the chamber above, through the ceiling over where she stood, to her head and down her body.

Marks of the lightning were left upon her hands and face, her eyebrows and lashes were singed off, and her left side, from her breast to the top of her hip bone was shockingly burned. A small hole was also made in her side, just above the hip bone, as if it was punched in by a stick. She was either thrown by the force of the shock or ran about six feet into another room, where she fell upon the floor. Her death must have been instantaneous. Her younger sister, who was standing by the side of her, had one foot slightly burned. Her mother, who was in the same room holding a baby, was badly injured upon the inside of one of her thighs, the flesh having the appearance, it would have it struck with a heavy club. The house was not much injured, the plastering being knocked off about the chimney in three or four rooms. It belongs to D. N. Carpenter. The wife of William Pender, who occupies the house north, 10 or 12 feet from the tree, was ironing at the window, facing the tree, and saw the bolt descend. A flatiron which she held in her hand was thrown six or eight feet from her, across the room, barely grazing the head of a child which lay in a cradle, and she herself was severely shocked. She contended that the lightning struck her upon the top of her head, but she probably received no further damage than a violent shock. Hundreds of our citizens visited the place during the afternoon.—Greenfield Gazette.

A Wisconsin Paper Proscribed in Prussia.

The Detroit Advertiser very truly says that the very weakest point in any government is its fear and trembling at the strictures of an independent press. Louis Napoleon has acknowledged the rottenness of his government by often exercising a rigid censorship over the French press. Numerous leading journals of France have been silenced by imperial command and their conductors fined and imprisoned because they uttered unpalatable strictures upon the Emperor. And we see that the government at Berlin has begun to imitate the unworthy French Emperor in its censorship of the press, not only of Prussia but of the United States.

The Secretary of the Interior of Prussia has accordingly prohibited the circulation within that kingdom of the two German papers published in New York city—the Staat's Zeitung and the Neue Zeit (the latter being already defunct); of one published in St. Louis, der Anzeiger des Westens; of the Wisconsin Demokrat, published in Manitowoc; of the Volks Zeitung, of Detroit, Michigan; of the Davenport (Iowa) Demokrat, and the Chicago National Demokrat. In what manner our Teutonic cotemporaries have managed to scare the authorities of Prussia we are at a loss to conjecture, as we never find in those sheets anything calculated to cause alarm to the most nervous old woman unless it be their advocacy of Republican principles.

It is very probable that his majesty, Frederick William, may have power to stop the circulation of a Detroit or an American newspaper among his subjects, and thus keep them in the dark of Republicanism and the principles of liberty.—Happily, there is no such power in this country, except as it is exercised in a petty way by locofoco Postmasters, against all law and duty.—There must be something rotten in Prussia, as there is in France and Italy, and Mexico and Spain, and all other countries where the governments are afraid of free discussion, free education, free thought and free religion. We advise Frederick William not to get into a fret. We will answer for the docile intentions of our German fellow-citizens, of Detroit, particularly as long as the thermometer ranges up to 98 in the shade, and they devote themselves principally to the constitutional beverage of lager bier.

CHURCH STRUCK BY LIGHTNING IN FREEPORT.—Last Sunday morning, while the Rev. Galbreith's congregation (United Presbyterian), of Freeport, Armstrong Co., was engaged in prayer, the church edifice was struck by lightning, instantly killing a Mrs. Ramaly, from the country, and seriously though not dangerously injuring her two brothers, Israel and George Watson, and her sister, Jane Watson. One of the Watson's boots were completely ripped off his feet, while the other brother had a place torn out of the side of his boot. Mr. Robert Morris, an old citizen of Freeport, was in the pew directly in front of the Watsons, and was seriously injured. For some time it was supposed he would not recover, but he is now out of danger. A Mr. James Ralston, who was seated some distance back from the above parties and upon the other side of the aisle, was somewhat injured. The lightning appears to have struck the front chimney of the building, run down the chimney to a tin plate on the stovepipe hole; and there parted—the great body of it being conducted along a ceiling joist to the water spout—on the outside, traversing it until it reached the center of the building. It then parted again, the great body of the charge running down the conductor, a part passing into the earth at the foot of the conductor, while the other portion, through some attraction, was led into the church, and over the back of the pew in which Mr. Morris was sitting. Mrs. Ramaly, her sister and brothers, all had their hands upon the back of the pew occupied by Morris. Others in the same pew who were standing perfectly upright, without resting their hands upon the back of their pew, were uninjured, with the exception of a boy, John Jordin, in Mr. Morris' pew, who was leaning against the wall; his back was slightly burnt.—Pittsburgh Journal.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

THE science of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce the best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel the disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distempers, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to their whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill—While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing direct ons for their use and certificates of their cures of numerous complaints.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S Pills and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them and they should have it.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,

FROM

The worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimple, on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of blotches.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth or stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt-rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula. A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, MASS.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kind of humors, is so well established, for the benefit of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most faithful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of those diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to you husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA,

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then to the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifferenceness to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the secretions fail to digest. The canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to CURE.

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also, that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

MONEY MATTERS.—We have no change to notice in money matters. Exchange on New York is plenty at 1 per cent. Discount rates at Bank 10 per cent. Business moderately active. Note brokers rates 1½ to 2¼ per cent per month. Gold selling at 1 per cent.

OUR MARKETS.

RECEIVED BY MIL. & MISS. R. R., July 7.—139 bbls flour, 9,967 bus wheat, 1,216 bus oats, 75 bus corn, 85 bus rye, 8 bbls eggs, 650 lbs hides, 1,885 lbs sundries, 4,864 lbs wool, 2 reapers.

LA CROSSE & MILWAUKEE R. R., July 7.—5,654 bus wheat, 1,548 bus oats, 33 bus barley, 5,300 lbs sundries, 2 head cattle.

M. W. & B. V. R. R., July 7.—8,691 bus wheat, 2,257 bus oats, 7 bbls eggs, 680 lbs butter, 870 lbs hides, 2,242 lbs wool, 1,000 lbs sundries.

There has been a fair degree of activity in our market to-day, without any noticeable change in prices. There is considerable inquiry for good dry wheat to ship, but buyers are extremely particular in making selections, and damp wheat is almost a drug on the market. Railroad receipts are somewhat lighter. The weather continues very warm, and the corn crop must be coming forward with a rush. We quote to-day:

WHEAT—Market tolerably active and prices unchanged. Choice No. 1, or what is usually called "fair extra," on the platforms, finds ready sale at 70c. Receipts being light, transactions are limited. We note the following sales to-day, which are not all the transactions: 160 bags choice extra at 73c, 475 bags do at 72c, 2,010 bags fair extra at 70c, 100 bags good No. 1 at 69c, 700 bags fair do at 68c, 400 bags poor do at 65c, 100 bags unsound at 65c, 143 bags white winter at 83c, and 75 bags red do at 75c.

FLOUR—Market inactive and rather lower. Sales today of 125 bbls "Portland Mills" spring extra at $8,62½ delivered, and 50 bbls superfine at $7,75 on board.

FREIGHTS—The only charter we have heard of to-day was the Brig Seminole: which takes a cargo of wheat to Oswego at 7½c.

OATS—The demand continues brisk though there was a slight decline in prices this afternoon. The market opened lively and some 2,500 bags were sold at 31c, but later in the day only 20 at 31½c were offered.

BARLEY—Quiet at 80@85c.

RYE—No sales reported to-day. Quoted at 55@51c.

CORN—A nice lot of shelled sold this morning at 40c.

POTATOES—Unchanged. Quoted at 20@25c.

BUTTER—Sales of 800 lbs fresh roll at 8c. The outside price that can be obtained for choice butter at present, is 9c.

HIDES—In active request at 5¼@6c for green; 7a7½c for green salted; 18a14c for dry.

WOOL—We have no alteration to make in our figures Several small sales to-day at former prices. We quote:

Quarter blood.....28c.
Half blood.....26c.
Three-quarter blood.....28 to 30c.
Full.....32c.
